

BE GOING TO

I Write sentences using the correct form of be going to.

0 They/buy a flat in Milan

They're going to buy a flat in Milan.

1 Sophie/become a nurse

.....

2 My brother/spend the holidays in Ireland

.....

3 We/not/wear shorts to school

.....

4 William/not/go to the cinema

.....

5 You/buy a poster?

.....

6 I/get a job this summer

.....

7 Rita and Megan/have a party/next week?

.....

8 George/live in Canada/next year?

.....

9 We/watch the hockey game/tomorrow?

.....

10 She/not/take part in the activity

.....

II Put the lines to in order to complete the dialogue.

Jill: Where are you staying?

Mike: I'm going to Scotland.

Jill: Lucky! I'm going to work this summer.

Mike: No, I'm going with a friend.

Jill: What are you going to do there?

Mike: We're staying in a bed and breakfast.

Jill: Are you going alone?

Mike: I'm going to climb a mountain! It's my dream!

Jill: Where are you going on holiday in July?

Put the lines in order to complete the dialogue.

A: No, sorry, I'm busy on Wednesday. I'm going to the gym. Can you come on Friday?

B: OK, bye!

A: How about tomorrow afternoon?

B: Thanks, I'd love to!

A: Would you like to go for an ice cream?

B: Yes, that's great! See you at the ice cream parlour at 4 o'clock.

A: Bye!

B: I'm afraid I can't come tomorrow. I have football training. Are you free on Wednesday?

A: Good! Let's meet at 4 o'clock on Friday then.

WILL / WON'T

I What will the world be like in 20 years? Match the two parts of the sentences.

0 People will control

___a us a lot of energy.

- 1 Students will learn _____ b our homes and cook our meals.
- 2 Robots will clean _____ c to Earth.
- 3 UFOs will come _____ d English from computers.
- 4 People will travel _____ e in supersonic aeroplanes.
- 5 Students won't do _____ f because doctors will give them better medicines.
- 6 People won't get sick _____ g the weather.
- 7 Ocean turbines will give _____ h because we'll use hydrogen fuel.
- 8 We won't need petrol _____ i their homework on paper. They'll do it on a computer.

II Choose the correct alternative to complete the dialogue.

A: Do you want to go to the beach this morning?

B: I don't know. It's very windy. I think it 's going to/will be cold.

A: No, it 's not/won't! It 's going to/will be hot in the afternoon. I heard it on TV. It's going to/will be fun and we can swim!

B: Do you think Nancy 's going to/will be there?

A: Yes, she 's going to/will be there with her brother.

B: No, she isn't/won't. Her brother's in hospital.

III Use the words given to complete the dialogues.

0 A: I left my dictionary at school and I need it.

B: I'll lend you mine . (lend/mine)

1 A: I can't find my glasses. Where are they?

B:(help/look for them)

2 A: I'm not feeling well.

B: (call/doctor)

3 A: I'm late and my plane leaves in an hour!

B: (take/airport)

4 A: What's on TV today?

B: (look/newspaper)

IV Complete the sentences below using will or won't according to the prompts.

1 When I am 25 I (be married) +

2 When Carlos is 40 he (have children) +

3 When we are 25 we (have a job) +

4 When Leyla is 20 she (drive a sports car) –

5 When Frank and Jane get married they (live in another country) –

6 When you grow up you..... . (be rich)-